

Quilt Exhibit Locations

Safe parking is available at each exhibit location.

Discounted, overnight packages available.
Visit www.visitflint.travel and click into "Overnight Pure FunPaks" or call (810) 232-3261.

Nonprofit Organization
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
Flint, Michigan
Permit No. 591

Greater Flint Arts Council
816 S. Saginaw St.
Flint, MI 48502
(810) 238-ARTS

The Flint Parade of Festivals is a service of Greater Flint Arts Council. Made possible in part by a grant from Charles Stewart Mott Foundation.

Traditional ♦ Historical Contemporary ♦ Planets
Fiber Art

SEPTEMBER 8-10, 2011

For more information, please contact:
Greater Flint Arts Council (810) 238-ARTS
or check out:

*Exhibitions and sites subject to change. See individual locations for viewing times. Please wear a white glove to touch fabrics.

Greater Flint Arts Council Presents:

UNIQUE HISTORIES & EXPRESSIONS OF CREATIVITY

Our 17th year of exhibiting quality quilts for your viewing enjoyment.

Thursday, Friday, & Saturday • Sept. 8, 9 & 10 • 9AM – 5PM

1 Longway Planetarium
1310 E. Kearsley, Flint • Admission: Free
“Star Quilts at the Planetarium”

This show features traditional and not-so traditional quilts with star blocks, space fabrics, star quilting or any combination. Our quilters' imagination is as limitless as Space itself. Quilts range from wall hangings to bed sized.
For information: (810) 237-3400

2 Flint Institute of Arts
1120 E. Kearsley St., Flint • Admission: Free
“History of Amish Quiltmaking”

Quilts from the mid 19th to mid 20th century illustrate the history of Amish quilts and the importance of this ongoing tradition. The quilts are from the private collection of Marsha and Thomas French.
Continues through November 3, 2011
For information: (810) 234-1695

3 Flint Public Library
1026 E. Kearsley St., Flint • Admission: Free
22nd Anniversary of the Flint African American Quilters Guild
“The Busy Hands of Quilters”

Flint African American Quilters Guild is hosting their 22nd Quilting Show at the FPL. Quilt Raffle during exhibit. General Reading Room
Dr. Carolyn L. Mazloomi, Quilt Lecturer
“The Daughter of Harriet Powers: African American Women Quilt a Culture”
Lower Level Reading Room
Sept 10 • 2:00PM
For information: (810) 232-7111, x2182

4 Motherly Intercession
817 E. Kearsley St. Ste. B, Flint • Admission: Free
“Come . . . and See . . .” – Isaiah 55:1-4”

Rosemary Lutz will display her thirteen Scriptures on Quilts inspired from 2010–2011 Bible Studies. Also, on display is a Applewood: Express It, a quilt Rosemary Lutz created with children enrolled with Motherly Intercession.

Rosemary Lutz
Presentation – Scriptures on Quilts
Sept 8, 9, 10 • 11:00AM
For information: (810) 424-9909

5 Greater Flint Arts Council
816 S. Saginaw St., Flint • Admission: Free
Michigan Quilt Artists Invitational
Curated by Mary Andrews and Marty Calhoun
“Art of the Kitchen”

Art quilts inspired by anything associated with the kitchen. The artists are free to use any method of constructions of their original design in their small quilt. Many of the quilts use very innovative methods, designs, and embellishments.
Continues through October 7, 2011 • M-F 9AM – 5PM
Sept 9 • 6:00 - 9:00PM • Artwalk, with food and beverages.
The musical entertainment will be provided by Dave Huber.
For information: (810) 238-ARTS (2787)

6 Tina's Sweet Delights
605 S. Saginaw St., Flint • Admission: Free
“Doors and Keys”

This is a community quilt created by youth and their families living at the Shelter of Flint. Doors and keys symbolize their hopes and desires. Link Community Arts Initiative and Artworks community story quilt assembled by Alfreda A. Harris, storyteller and quilter.
For information: (810) 336-7681

7 Buckham Gallery
134 ½ W. Second St., Flint • Admission: Free
“Reiterate”

The Reiterate exhibition presents work that utilizes repetition, patterns, and/or the piecing together of materials.
Joe the Quilter
Guitar slinger and quiltmaker Joe Cunningham will present his one-man musical, “Joe the Quilter,” which tells the true life story of Joe Headley born in 18th century England and known as Joe the Quilter.
Sept 10 • 7:00PM
For information: (810) 239-6233

8 The Lunch Studio
444 S. Saginaw St., Flint • Admission: Free
Flint Handmade

“The Multi-Generational Appeal of Quilts”
Flint Handmade will feature a wide range of quilts made in the 20th and 21st centuries by members of the same family. The styles and patterns of the quilts will vary greatly, but they will share the common thread of having been loved across generations.
For information: (810) 241-2660

9 Brown Sugar Café
432 S. Saginaw St., Flint • Admission: Free
“Hope and Pride in Flint”

This is a community quilt created by visitors to the Applewood Estate during their open day on Saturday, August 13th. The many quilt story patches were then assembled to reflect the diversity of possibilities for Flint's story of hope and pride. Alfreda A. Harris, storyteller and quilter facilitated the Applewood Estate's community story project and assembled the quilt.
For information: (810) 336-7681

10 Hoffman's Deco Deli
503 Garland St., Flint • Admission: Free
Material Girls
“It's A Wrap”

All of our quilts are made with donated fabrics and given away during the Christmas holiday season to those who are less fortunate.
For information: (810) 424-6091

11 Stockton Center at Spring Grove
720 Ann Arbor St., Flint • Admission: $3
“Stitches Over Time”

An exhibit of old quilts from the collection of Virginia Anderson and April Yorks along with some antique quilts from the collection of quilts from Crossroads Village quilt collection. Have your scissors, kitchen knives, garden snips sharpened on Friday 9AM – 12 noon or Saturday 12 noon – 4PM by Bell's Blazen Blades. Fee of $3-$6.
Free gifts to the first 50 attendees.
More information: (810) 653-4280