

November 2008

December 2008

ARTS of the LGBTQ COMMUNITIES and ALLIES

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2008 - FLINT YOUTH THEATRE, OFF THE PRESS SERIES, 6 p.m.-$5. Flint Cultural Center

The Little Dog Laughed WRITTEN BY DOUGLAS CARTER BEANE This Tony-nominated play is a zinger-filled comedy about deception and double-dealings in Hollywood. It follows the exploits of that loveable monster, a Hollywood agent as she maneuvers through the complications caused by a play-to-movie deal in trouble, a stubborn playwright and an actor who may be about to win the role of the century, if it weren't for one teensy-weensy problem. Will there be a happy ending as the final credits roll? A FYT Off the Press Theatrical Reading.

Change

4:30 p.m. Monday, November 17 2008 - UofM-Flint Michigan Room A University Center

Soldier's Girl Veteran's Day Film Discussion to follow.

A soldier falls deeply in love with a transgendered singer. Based on a true story

Change

6:30 p.m. Monday November 17 following Soldier's Girl

Don't Ask, Don't Tell Presentation by Jay Kaplan, ACLU of Michigan

After the film, join us as Jay Kaplan, Staff Attorney for the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender (LGBT) Law Project of the ACLU of Michigan, will provide an overview of the "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy and its affects on LGBT community in the military. Group discussion will follow.

Saturday, November 15, 2008 - Woodside Church, 5p.m. Light Supper, Movie and Panel Discussion

Fences A Film: Written , Produced and Starring David Garcia

'Fences' explores Middle America's clash between religious fundamentalism and religious dogma during the rise of the gay civil rights movement. Follow Garcia around the country as he confronts religious conservatives such as Reverend Fred Phelps and Dr. James Dobson - all the while searching for Portland Filmmaker Gus Van Sant to deliver a deeply personal message.

Thursday, November 20, 2008 - UofM-Flint, 3:00 p.m. Happenings Room, University Center

Beautiful Daughters A film for Transgender Day of Remembrance

You are invited to this viewing of the documentary making of Eve Ensler's first all transgender production of "The Vagina Monologues." Along with the production of the monologues, these women discuss their journeys through confusion, violence, and doubt, to become who they are.

Friday, December 5, and Saturday, December 6, 2008 Good Bean's Cafe, 7:30 p.m.

The COPA A play created by Drew Fifield and Kristi Starnes Enhanced from Spring Preview

Written by Kristi Starnes, Film Editing by Drew Fifield, Directed by Samantha MacFarland.

Dec. 5, 2008, Woodside Church, 6 p.m. Dinner, Performance and Talkback following

Remember Who Made You Performed by Jeffrey Barnes, actor, director and playwright

A dynamic one-person play exploring the myths, fears and joys of being gay AND Christian.

This is the end of the ONA series for this year. Attend the events to show your support for continuing ONA.

Check Out...

genesee fun .com OR www.greaterflintartscouncil.org

Presented by Greater Flint Arts Council Call (810) 238-ARTS

Made Possible by the EVENT PARTNERS

Schedules Subject to Change

11/3/08